I kind of redid the codeaholics website

<http://codeaholics.io/>

Codeaholics is a community of passionate programmers in Hong Kong. We hold monthly meetups, aiming to share our skills and passion.

Harbour Front Monthly is a front end/web design meetup

We cover a variety of topics around all things mobile and responsive web design & development. We discuss the latest technologies, new ideas and best practices in web design. The event format usually consists of 1 or 2 presentations of approx. 30 minutes each, followed by a short Q&A and networking drinks to mingle with your industry peers afterwards.
